

During the Month of April 2019 all of the paintings from Sally's new book Zendrukobia will be on display in the Atrium of the Main Branch of the Central Rappahannock Regional Library on Caroline Street in Fredericksburg, VA. On Saturday, the 6th of April, between the hours of 1 and 3 pm there will be a book sale and signing by the author/illustrator in the Atrium.

Poster:

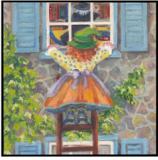

Some pages from the book:

There are two exceptions: Misto, the prime minister and sorcerer, and Matricia, a would-be witch.

8

Matricia didn't know Misto's secret, though she suspected it might help her become a witch to be reckoned with. She lived too close to the Zendrukobian capital to be truly bad, even though she tried.

11

Each Drukobian planned a special gift for the royal child. Each imagined the joy of delivering their gift. Everyone counted the days until the baby would arrive.

16

He had missed some of her chant and was not able to cancel her spell. If the child learned his secret, the land of Zendrukobian would be changed permanently, doomed to no longer be a land of kindness. It was Misto's duty to prevent this from happening.

24